

Position: In-Class Teaching Artist
Reports to: Residency Program Manager

Status: Part-time with M-F availability, non-exempt
Starting Pay Rate: $20 to $23/hour, based on experience

---

Summary of Position

The ArtReach Teaching Artist works directly with San Diego schools to teach visual arts programs that focus on social-emotional learning, integrative learning, and exposing students to historical, modern, and contemporary artists whose art celebrates and reflects the experiences our youth are navigating today. TAs work closely with the Residency Program Manager and school liaison to develop a curriculum based on the pulse of each school's community and values.

The ArtReach TAs' work is to foster resiliency, belonging, and collaboration while teaching technical art skills to each ArtReach student. TAs are instrumental in delivering our core mission, making visual arts education accessible to all students, regardless of ability, socioeconomic, or demographic classifications. TAs harness and uplift the creative brilliance and resilience that resides in each young artist they work with.

Duties and Responsibilities

Program Prep, Lesson Planning, and Project Development (remote work)

- Develop original, contemporary, and inclusive visual arts curricula
- Utilize a wide variety of art media and styles
- Design digital visual presentations for use in the classroom (Slides or PowerPoint)
- Create age-specific lesson plans per project that include art history and VAPA standards.

Program Implementation (on-site)

- Deliver engaging arts education, demonstration, and instruction in the classroom.
- Connect with all students individually and as a group throughout the class, leading, uplifting, and inspiring them to find their authentic artistic voice.
- Act as a representative of the ArtReach mission and a partner to each school site, understanding that the nature of the position requires occasional flexibility with school schedules and requests

Requirements

- 1+ year experience teaching visual arts/working with young people
- Familiarity with Social-Emotional Learning, or willingness to learn
- Proficient in Google Workspace (G Suite)
- Communicative, organized, and accountable
- Reliable transportation to and from school sites and ArtReach office in Bankers Hill (schools may be based in North County, East County, Central San Diego, or a combination of all three, upon Teaching Artist request)
- Preemployment Requirements: fingerprinting, background check, current TB test, Covid-19 vaccination
